

CENTER STAGE AT THE PEACOCK

The Peacock Performing Arts Center is pleased to announce "Center Stage at the Peacock," an eight week after school arts program for students in grades 3-8 on Thursday afternoons from 3:30 until 5:30. The program begins on January 4 and ends on February 22. The Peacock is located at 301 Church Street in Hayesville—behind Truett Baptist Church and next to Chatuge Family Practice.

Center Stage includes 4 elements: Artist and art teacher Reba Beck will lead students through an art project; Nanette Davidson with the John C. Campbell Folk School will teach traditional dance; Tom Payne, a local actor and magician, will teach magic; and PPAC Artistic Director, former teacher and professional actor, Laurel Adams, is going to teach improvisation and acting. The four elements will be tied together in a final "showcase" for family and friends on Thursday, February 22 at the Peacock.

The goal of Center Stage is to give the participants a taste of the performing arts, so performance or theatre experience is not necessary. This is the third year of Center Stage and a part of an expanding number of arts education programs by the Peacock Performing Arts Center.

Tuition for the 8 week program is $25.00. We must have a minimum of 10 students, Registration will begin on December 1, 2017 and end on January 3, 2018. A registration form is located below and can be mailed in with the tuition, or you may contact Gail Criss at 828 361-3481 or gailcriss143@gmail.com for further information. We also invite you to visit our website thepeacocknc.org for more information about the Peacock Performing Arts Center, including performance and ticket information.
