THE STORY: In New York City, recent widower and a writer of novels, George Schneider is encouraged by his younger brother, Leo, to start dating again. This sends George into even more depression after a series of bad dates. Then Leo comes up with Jennie Malone, and she's a keeper! Still, it's a bumpy trip on the road to happiness for these not-so-young lovers. George and Jennie stumble onward, overcoming both their hesitation about "rebound" flings and their emotional neediness. In a hilarious subplot, Leo and Faye, Jennie's neurotic best friend, try to have a fling of their own.

CHARACTERS NEEDED: 2 men; 2 women

George Schneider (35 – 45) Attractive, intelligent, just returned from a trip to Europe to ease his grief over the passing of Barbara, his beloved wife of 12 years. He's warm, charming and understands everyone except himself.

Leo Schneider (33 – 43) A press agent and George's younger brother-- a real "ham"—everything is funny, except his own marriage, which seems to have fallen into the doldrums.

Jennie Malone (30 – 40) She's a successful actress; attractive, organized—seems to be very disciplined—which is what ruined her marriage of 6 years. She is recovering from her recent divorce and 5 years of therapy.

Faye Medwick (32 – 42) An actress, she's been married to Sidney for 8 years but their marriage is stagnating--she never talks with him about that. She and Jennie have been best friends forever.
