With a cast of only three actors, reliable attendance at every rehearsal is essential. All known schedule conflicts must be submitted at auditions. Outside of unforeseen emergencies, unexcused absences, chronic tardiness, or undisclosed conflicts may result in immediate recasting at the director's discretion.

STORYLINE: Instead of performing Charles Dickens' beloved holiday classic for the umpteenth time, three actors decide to perform every Christmas story ever told—plus Christmas traditions from around the world, seasonal icons from ancient times to topical pop-culture, and every carol ever sung. A madcap romp through the holiday season!

CHARACTER NEEDED: 3 men, but gender can be changed! All three roles play MANY different characters and will require strong comedic timing and ability, willingness to go over the top, willingness to improv and work with the audience, willingness to sing (even if not well) and have fun!

JIM - The "straight man". No nonsense, struggles to keep the other cast mates on task. Just wants to perform "A Christmas Carol" like they have rehearsed.

Characters played by Jim: Grinch, Hermey, Santa, Game Show Contestant, Scrooge, etc*

JOHN - The enthusiastic instigator who believes every problem can be solved with more energy, more commitment, and less restraint. Childlike, full of wonder and amazement. Energetic lover of all things holiday. Characters played by John: Gustav the Green-Nosed Reingoat, Game Show Contestant, Frosty, Della, Linus, Nutcracker, Clarence, George Bailey, etc.*

MICHAEL - An instigator and showman. Just there to have fun and to get under Jim's skin. Characters played by Michael: Mrs. Claus, Yukon Cornelius, Game Show Host, Cratchit, Fred, Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present, and Future, etc.*
